

Date November 14, 2000
Time 06:00 AM - 06:30 AM
Station News 12 Connecticut
Location Norwalk, Conn.
Program The Morning Edition

Mary Anne Loughlin, anchor:

The University of Connecticut will be celebrating today as it receives the largest corporate investment in its history. Governor John Rowland is expected to be present at this morning's announcement of the University's new agreement with GE in Stamford. This partnership will include joint research projects, new curriculum and programs that support under represented minority students. Also planned, the development of new infrastructure at the Stamford Campus.